LABOR CRISIS SPECIAL ISSUE

Shackling of Labor Grave Threat to South

CRISIS

This special issue is rushed to you because organized labor's life is in danger.

If labor is shackled, Southern living standards cannot move forward.

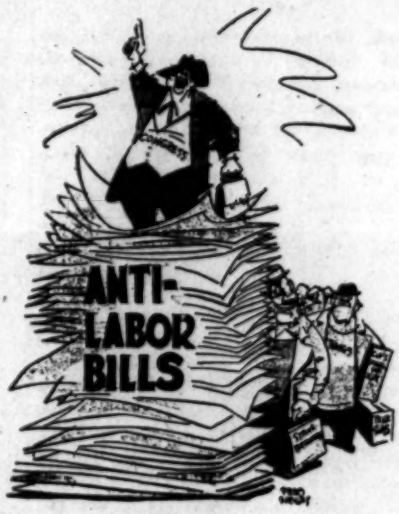
DANGER

The House has passed the Hartley "Kill - Labor" Bill.

The Senate is arguing the Taft-Ball "Kill-Labor" Bill.

William Green calls it "The destruction of the American Labor Movement."

Philip Murray calls it "America's first real step toward Fascism."



Conspiracy

DEATH FOR UNIONS

The Hartley-Ball-Taft bills kill the Wagner Act, break up national unions into isolated locals, scotch real collective bargaining, and bring an era of injunctions and armed violence against working men and women.

Progress in the South will be set back fifty years if that happens.

SCHW ACTION

We cannot let that happen. Each one of us can play a vital role in preventing it from happening:

1. Wire and write your Senators right away, % Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C., demanding they vote against the Taft-Ball Bill.

2. Visit local AFL, CIO and other unions offices and offer your help in setting up Citizens Labor Defense Committees.

3. Take the initiative in getting your S.C.H.W., church, professional or other groups to express themselves publicly for labor's rights.

4. If the Bill passes the Senate, wire President Truman demanding a veto.

5. Then wire and write your Congressmen and Senators again demanding that they vote to sustain the veto.

6. Do something definite on this every day until the plot against labor's life is defeated.

CHALLENGE

This special issue isn't in our budget. Neither is fascist forced labor.

By getting a new SCHW member you can meet the cost, widen the circle.
